Thank you Jack.

Most importantly CD4 and reps need to be reminded that this would not be tolerated anywhere else in a residential neighborhood in the City. Let alone every day of the week. Their job is to enforce the laws and protect its citizens. We're not excluded because we live next to a landmark

Let me know if I can help in anyway

Good luck Kcaj, several people in multiple HOA's and a coalition of LHE residents have attempted the same. We even delivered a petition with signatures showing Ryu what he asked for, residential consensus with specific service requests. You will likely get an early warm reception, a nice meeting and initial interaction with broad verbal positive spin, but when you ask for specifics and push for dates to implement any discussed solutions you will get dropped like a bad habit.

After you put a few months of your thoughtful into this, please let us know how it feels to you.

Once this C4 insider game is uncovered in several parts of the district we will be able to join forces and get something done, possibly via recall.

Its appears that aside from the same old increase in enforcement for [REDACTED] (which does not work), we will get nothing.

Good hunting.

Cheers

Jack, you would make a great safety Chairman and I think your idea of gathering people from the different areas and getting a consensus for a presentation to CD4 is a good one.

Thanks Tony,

I'm not going into this expecting anymore than what you describe, but I do have the time to be a bigger pest than peeps in the past. I'm tired of sitting on the sidelines bitching about the way things are...so I'm willing to put in the time and effort to see what I can do.

Thanks again, jc
